

Japan Foundation Japanese Studies Fellowship Program

Application Form: RJS-FW

Section in Charge: Japanese Studies Department

This program provides scholars and researchers in the field of Japanese studies with opportunities to conduct research in Japan, with the aim of promoting Japanese studies overseas. There are three subcategories as follows.

* For individuals in Southeast Asia, please apply for "JF-JSA-ASEAN Fellowship Program" instead.

[Scholars and Researchers (Long-Term)]

Applicants: Scholars and researchers who have a Ph.D. degree or equivalent professional experience at the time of application and are conducting research related to Japan (comparative research included) in the humanities and social sciences, whose projects require them to travel to Japan to carry out research over a long period of time.

Duration: 4 to 12 months

[Scholars and Researchers (Short-Term)]

Applicants: Scholars and researchers who have a Ph.D. degree or equivalent professional experience at the time of application and are conducting research related to Japan (comparative research included) in the humanities and social sciences, whose projects require them to travel to Japan to carry out research, gather materials, etc., intensively over a short period of time.

Duration: 21 to 89 days

[Doctoral Candidates]

Applicants: Ph.D. candidates conducting research related to Japan (comparative research included) in the humanities and social sciences, who find it necessary to visit Japan to complete their dissertations.
Duration: 4 to 12 months

Eligibility

1 All of the following criteria must be met.

- a. Applicants must hold nationality or lawful permanent resident status in countries that have diplomatic relations with Japan.
* Taiwanese applicants are eligible to apply only for "Scholars and Researchers (Long-Term)" or "Doctoral Candidates."
- b. Applicants must secure all affiliation arrangements by the application deadline.
- c. Applicants must be in good health and proficient in either Japanese or English.
- d. In principle, applicants must be able to stay continuously in Japan for the term of Fellowship from the beginning date of the Fellowship, which is the arrival date in Japan, which must fall between June 20, 2025 and March 31, 2026.

- e. Previous recipients of Japan Foundation Fellowships (not only the Japanese Studies Fellowship but also all the other Fellowships of the Japan Foundation) are eligible to reapply only if, on April 1, 2025, a full three years has elapsed since the termination of their most recent Fellowship. Previous “short-term (89 days or less)” Fellows are eligible to reapply only if, on April 1, 2025, one full year has elapsed since the termination of their most recent Fellowship.

2 Individuals meeting any of the following conditions are not eligible to apply:

- a. Scholars or researchers in the natural sciences, medicine or engineering;
- b. Undergraduates; Master’s degree candidates; those intending to enroll in Undergraduate or Master’s courses at universities in Japan; or graduates intending to enroll in Ph.D. courses in Japan;
- c. Those who primarily intend to enhance their Japanese-language ability or industry-related technical skills, to develop and/or produce Japanese-language teaching materials, or to acquire artistic training in the area of Japanese traditional culture (tea ceremony, flower arrangement, etc.);
- d. Those who plan to receive other grants/scholarships/fellowships covering expenses for travel to and accommodation in Japan concurrently with the Fellowship;
- e. Those who will have been in Japan continuously for more than a year dating back from April 1, 2025;
- f. Those who apply for any other grant program of the Japan Foundation, except for the “JF-GJS Fellowship,” the “JF-Nichibunken Fellowship,” or the “JF-CIJS-EAJS Fellowship” programs..

* The JF-GJS Fellowship program is for post-doctoral researchers and is co-organized with the Institute for Advanced Studies on Asia of the University of Tokyo. The JF-Nichibunken Fellowship program is also for post-doctoral researchers and is co-organized with the International Research Center for Japanese Studies. The JF-CIJS-EAJS Fellowship program is for doctoral candidate in Europe and is co-organized with the Center for Integrated Japanese Studies of Tohoku University with the support of European Association for Japanese Studies. Selection Policy

- 1 See p. 2 for the selection policy common to all programs.
 - 2 Project quality is evaluated on the basis of its significance to the field and to the applicant's professional development, necessity of residing in Japan for completion of the project, and feasibility in terms of time and resources. Applicants' educational background, employment history, position in their affiliated institution, and research achievements will also be considered.
 - 3 Applicants who have received Japan Foundation Fellowships twice or more in the past will be given much lower priority.
- * Please be informed that applicants in Southeast Asia will be considered for the JF-JSA-ASEAN Fellowship Program.
